

SOCIETY NEWS, NOTES, AND GOSSIP OF THE PAST WEEK

Shepherd chapters. Violin solo by a member of Christ Church Navy Yard, and vocal solo by George Cost, of St. John's, Georgetown. Addresses appropriate to the occasion will be had in the church, and the party will leave at 10 o'clock for Washington.

The boys of the Junior Chapter, of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, in St. John's parish, Georgetown, contemplate a fine time in their second annual outing at Colonial Beach, Va., about August 14. They will be in charge of H. S. Childs, their director, and Clarence Mace, with headquarters at the Choir Lodge, on the beach front far from the "madding crowd," but where real enjoyment is at their very door. They will also assist in the Sunday services of the brotherhood at the chapel, combining duty with their pleasure.

The following members of the chapter are listed for the trip: Thos. A. Donaldson, George Cost, Le Roy Havener, Andrew H. Hamilton, Russell Herrington, Middleton, John L. Moore, Wilbur Burrows, Philip Peters, John A. Hamilton, George Bromley, Kendall Myers, Halbert Brown, Earl Davis, Ernest Etchison.

The boys are governed by regulations, and have their daily duties as many hands make light work. The boys wear hats with "Camp Howden" in letters of blue, the color of the chapter, and the brotherhood button is reproduced in ribbon on their sweaters.

The camp was named last year after the rector of the parish.

Miss Bessie Dowling, of Campbell street, Brentwood, Md., celebrated her twentieth birthday on Monday evening by delightfully entertaining a large number of her many friends. The Dowling residence and grounds, which have recently been transformed into one of the prettiest places in this portion of the country, was handsomely decorated with Japanese lanterns, and upon the well-lighted lawn, beneath its old and picturesque trees, the guests made merry and participated in the pleasures of the evening. The young hostess received many handsome and costly gifts and was the recipient of constant congratulations. Piano solos were rendered by Misses Hoffman, McGuire, and West, and vocal solos by Messrs. Trodden, Knott, Connors, Campbell, Debenbrock, McAuliffe, Carley, and Dowling. During the course of the evening refreshments were served.

Among those present were: Annie Vermillion, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Trodden, T. Knott, Margaret McGuire, Albert Fox, Ruth Simms, Dr. Smith, May Boyle, Catherine Boyle, Frank Trodden, Bessie Hoffman, Bessie Debenbrock, Bertha Tobin, Mrs. McCauley, Mamie Klein, Michael Carley, Emelyn West, Tom Connor, Edith Thompson, John Carroll, Julia Ewer, F. Miss Grace Allen, daughter of Gen. and Mrs. Charles J. Allen, is rapidly recovering from the effect of the operation for appendicitis which she underwent several weeks ago, and her parents expect to take her to their summer home, "Sea Rest," at Edgartown, Mass., next week.

The Rev. John Henry Doermann, a retired Lutheran minister, and Mrs. Doermann, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage Wednesday evening last in their residence near Manassas, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Doermann have eight children, twenty-five grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren, and are themselves hale and hearty, the hair of each being hardly touched with gray, although Mr. Doermann has a white beard.

Mr. Doermann was born in Germany in April, 1832, and came to this country when a boy, his father settling in Missouri. He studied theology at Fort Wayne, Ind., under Dr. Shiller and Prof. Craemen, pioneer theologians in this country of the Lutheran Evangelical Church. His first charge was in New York State, near Buffalo, where he met Miss Mary Alward, who also had come from Germany when a child, having been born there December 25, 1838. The couple were married July 17, 1857.

After leaving New York State Mr. Doermann had a church in Randolph County, Ill., then one at Yorkville, in the same State, and afterward went to Blue Island, near Chicago, where he had a long pastorate, resigning a few years ago to retire to his house near Manassas. He was succeeded at Blue Island by his oldest son, Henry K., who, in turn, was succeeded by his youngest brother, Martin, the present pastor.

The sons are Henry K., professor of theology at the Norwegian Seminary, St. Paul, Minn.; John E. A., pastor of the Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, Washington; August W., for seventeen years a teacher in a Lutheran school, now retired, and Martin, pastor of the Lutheran Church at Blue Island, Ill. The daughters are Mrs. John Strassen, wife of a Lutheran pastor at Milwaukee, Wis., and Mrs. Mary Dapper, wife of a clergyman at Crestline, Ohio. Mrs. Strassen's son John is in charge of the church at Middletown, Conn., and her daughter is the wife of the Rev. Hermann Hellerberg, a clergyman at Jacksonville, Ill.

Mrs. Doermann's sister is the wife of the Rev. Dr. E. A. Schmidt, well-known as a theologian in the Northwest, a professor in the Norwegian Seminary of St. Paul, where his nephew, Henry K. Doermann, is also a member of the faculty. Mrs. Doermann's brother is the Rev. Dr. H. A. Allwardt, of Lebanon, Wis.

At the house in Manassas the celebration of the golden wedding was conducted by the oldest son, Henry K. Doermann, who delivered an address after religious exercises. The house was decorated with yellow flowers. Nearly all the members of the family were present, although a few were prevented by illness from attending. Many telegrams and letters of congratulation were received from all parts of the country.

Miss Blossom Reed was the guest of honor at a charming dance given for her at Columbus Barracks, Ohio, last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Neely and Mrs. Otterback, of Washington, are the guests of Mrs. Gape, mother of Dr. Nelson Gape, U. S. A., at Columbus Barracks, Ohio.

Mrs. Albert Sigmund, of the Ashley, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Ben Frank, of Baltimore.

Jonas H. Michaels, accompanied by his nephew, Moritz Kohner, sailed last week for Europe. They will visit St. Moritz, Innsbruck, and the Turkish Tyrol.

Mrs. Saul Myer, of the Ashley, will spend a fortnight with relatives in Catonsville, Md.

Miss Lillian Cohen left the city this week to visit her sister, Mrs. I. Field, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lansburgh sailed from New York on Thursday to spend the summer abroad. Mark Lansburgh is visiting relatives in Indiana and St. Louis.

Weddings—Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Williams, of Chicago, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Catherine Stewart Williams, to Francis Bennett Poe, of Washington.

Miss Williams is well known in Washington, where she was the guest for some time last winter of Miss Catherine Ridgely, daughter of the Comptroller of the Currency, William Barrett Ridgely, in their apartment in the Portland. She was entertained considerably during her stay in Washington both by her hostess and a number of her friends here.

Thursday at noon, at St. Albans Church, in the beautiful woods of the Cathedral Close, a small company of relatives gathered to witness the marriage of Miss Ella Lillian Sherman to Lieut. Elliott Johnstone Dent.

The wedding united two families whose names have long been prominent in public affairs; Lieutenant Dent being of the older branch of the Dent family, which has been closely associated with the history of Washington. He is, also, of the Johnstone family of South Carolina, a family of recognized influence in that State.

Miss Sherman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sherman, of Washington, is of a family which from Colonial days has been conspicuous in both the military and civil service of the country. It was with her grandfather in Ohio that, during a part of his boyhood, Senator Sherman made his home, and after whom he was named.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and attended by her sister, Mrs. William Bolton Farnum, of Rochester, N. Y. Joseph Dent, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. C. F. Bratenahl, rector of the parish, assisted by the Rev. J. G. Ames, uncle of the bride.

The bride's gown was of Brussels net and duchess lace over soft, white silk, enveloped in a veil of tulle, and the bouquet a shower of white Kaiserin roses. The young matron of honor wore white chiffon, with picture hat, and carried La France roses.

After the breakfast, given by the parents of the bride, at the Highlands, the young couple left for a short wedding journey, soon after which they will pass the remainder of the summer on the Maine coast, returning in October to make their home in Washington, where Lieutenant Dent is at present stationed on duty in the Engineer Corps.

Mr. and Mrs. George Washington Sadler have sent out cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Kathleen E. Cromwell Sadler, to Dr. Houston Boyd Hiatt, of Clinton, N. C. Monday, July 8, at Washington, D. C. Dr. and Mrs. Hiatt will be at home after September 1 at Clinton, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Broas announce the marriage of their niece, Miss Ella Goodair, to William B. Payne, at their home, Wednesday. After September 1 Mr. and Mrs. Payne will be at home at the Susquehanna.

Mrs. Susan H. C. Wilkes, of Charlottesville, Va., and Edwin J. Clapp, of St. Paul, the famous Yale athlete, were married last Monday in the Willard Hotel by the Rev. H. L. Wright, of Ryland Methodist Episcopal Church. Shortly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Clapp left Washington for New York, and sailed from there on Wednesday for England, where they will spend their honeymoon, returning to this country late in the autumn.

Mrs. Clapp has been living in Charlottesville with her father, Maj. W. Nelson, U. S. A., retired, but is well known in St. Paul, where she has spent much time. She is a handsome and vivacious woman, and her marriage came as a great surprise to her many friends.

Mr. Clapp is the son of Newell H. Clapp, of St. Paul, and a relative of United States Senator Moses H. Clapp. He has visited Washington, and is well known here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clapp will upon their return in the autumn make their home in the West, it is understood.

Cards have been received in Washington announcing the marriage in Chicago, June 23, of Miss Louise Chaffield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo B. Chaffield, 3409 Seventeenth street, to Francis Hobson Hubbard, of Milwaukee. Miss Alma Wright, of Washington, was the bride's only attendant, and the ceremony was marked with the utmost simplicity.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard will reside at 1107 Wells street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Senator and Mrs. Robert L. Taylor, of Nashville, Tenn., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Loretta Hunter Taylor, to W. B. Campbell Pichey, of Nashville, the wedding to take place some time in the latter part of September.

Invitations have been received here for the marriage of Miss Eloise Rose

Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Curtis, to Claude Barnett Garrett, of Norfolk. The wedding will take place Tuesday evening, July 30, at 6 o'clock in the Second Presbyterian Church of Norfolk.

The marriage is announced of Miss Sallie Ernestine Shackelford, of Charlottesville, Va., to Mason E. Lane, of Norfolk. The ceremony took place in Washington, July 15, the Rev. Dr. S. H. Greene, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, officiating.

The bride and bridegroom were accompanied by Washington by Walker Webb, of Charlottesville, who was the only witness present at the ceremony.

After a Northern and Western wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Lane will make their home in Richmond.

Mrs. Lane is the daughter of Z. N. Shackelford, of Charlottesville and Mr. Lane is the son of Superintendent J. W. Lane, of the Charlottesville schools and an employee of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baskerville, of Boynton, Pa., have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Louise Gordon Baskerville, to John King Burgwin, of Bristol, Va. The ceremony will take place in St. James Episcopal Church, at Boynton, Va., Wednesday, July 24, at 8 o'clock.

Besides the maid of honor and best man, there will be eight bridesmaids and eight ushers.

Among the attendants will be the bride's cousin, Miss Mattie Baskerville, A. S. Drewry, Gessner Harrison of Richmond, Dr. William Wiley, and Henry Lavender.

The latter two will accompany Mr. Burgwin from Bristol.

A party from Wytheville, Va., will also go to Boynton to attend the ceremony, and the bride and bridegroom will visit in Wytheville, when returning from their wedding journey before going to their home in Bristol.

Mr. and Mrs. William Radford Beale, of Buchanan, Va., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lucy Preston Beale, to Oscar Caperton Hoffman, of Buchanan, Va. The ceremony will take place in the home of the bride Tuesday, July 23.

Miss Beale was greatly admired recently at the Virginia building at the Jamestown Exposition, where she assisted Mrs. Swanson and her mother in doing the honors of the house.

Mr. Hoffman is a well-known young business man of Richmond.

Miss Madeline Henke and Frank Lawson, both of Norfolk, were married Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the Cumberland Street Methodist Church, of Norfolk, by the Rev. W. G. Starr, pastor of the church.

Only the members of the two families and a few intimate friends attended the ceremony.

Cards have been received here for the marriage of Miss Mary Oliver Fitzgerald, of Blackstone, Va., to John Walter Beard, of Amherst, Va. The ceremony will take place Wednesday, July 24, at 9 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church at Blackstone. A reception in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Fitzgerald, will follow the ceremony, and later the young couple will leave for their wedding trip, during which they will visit Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rice Smith, of 902 West Franklin street, Richmond, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Bessie Wadner Smith, to Thomas H. Briggs, of Columbia, S. C. The wedding, which will be attended only by a family party and a few friends, will take place August 7, in All Saints Church, Richmond.

Mrs. W. J. Motley, of Blacksburg, Va., announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Minnie Wardetta, to William Thompson Gordon, of South Carolina, the wedding to take place some time in the autumn.

Cards have been received in Washington from Mrs. F. H. Cameron announcing the marriage in Manila, June 28, of her daughter, Miss Eugenie Cameron, to Lieut. Alexander S. Wadsworth, Jr., U. S. N. The bride is the daughter of the late F. H. Cameron, of Raleigh, N. C., and an attractive and accomplished young woman. She was visiting in Manila, with her sister, Mrs. Burnett, wife of Lieutenant Burnett, of the Fourth Cavalry, who is at present detailed as aide to General Pershing at Fort McKinley.

A pretty wedding took place in Berkeley, Cal., at noon on Wednesday, July 10, when Miss Bessie Thompson, of that city, became the bride of Lieut. Clarence S. Ridley, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A. The ceremony was performed in St. Mark's Episcopal Church, the Rev. E. L. Parsons, D. D., officiating, and was witnessed by a large number of guests. Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, Lieutenant and Mrs. Ridley leaving later in the afternoon on their honeymoon trip, after which they will make their home at Fort Leavenworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Bing, of Greensburg, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Lieut. Louis A. Kunz, Third United States Infantry.

The engagement is announced of Miss Ethel Beardsley, of Auburn, N. Y., to Midshipman Sloan Danenhower, U. S. N. No date has as yet been fixed for the wedding.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Theodore Louise Smith, daughter of Mrs. Leigh Richmond Smith, of Santa Clara, Cal., to Joseph O'Hara, son of Col. James O'Hara, U. S. A., retired, of San Francisco, Cal. No date is announced for the wedding.

A., retired, son of Col. Charles H. Whipple, pay department, U. S. A. The wedding was solemnized at Dresden June 25.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Edith Miller and Lieut. M. H. Thomlinson, U. S. A. Miss Miller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, who live in Sausalito, Cal. The wedding will probably take place in the fall at Sausalito.

Lieut. Col. J. M. Banister, deputy surgeon general, U. S. A., and Mrs. Banister announce the engagement of their daughter, Maude Edmondson, to Lieut. J. H. Barnard, Fifth Cavalry.

Charles F. Smith, son of Brig. Gen. Frank G. Smith, U. S. A., retired, and Miss Marjorie Fargo were married at San Diego, Cal., July 11.

An interesting marriage ceremony was celebrated at St. Margaret's chapel, Westminster, London, the scene of so many American weddings, at noon yesterday. Dr. David Moffat Gillespie, son of the late William Gillespie, of New York, and a nephew of David Moffat, the Denver financier, was married to Lillian Brechemin, daughter of Lieut. Col. Louis Brechemin, U. S. A. The bride was given away by her father, Capt. Sydney A. Cloman, the American military attaché, was the best man, and Miss Helen De Young was maid of honor.

The bride, who is a blonde, was robed in a gown of Ninon point lace and wore a chain of pearls and diamonds, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. De Young. She also had on a brooch of diamonds and rubies, the gift of the groom. Miss Helen De Young wore a gown of pink chiffon trimmed with Valenciennes lace, and a large white hat covered with flowers.
